

Why did vaccination not work
well for some countries?

Japanese Economy in Transition

Germany's third dose vaccination rate is very high by international standards, ...

However, the recent number of new infections in Germany has been amazing.

- Germany's positive rate is the highest among major countries, suggesting that the number of tests is insufficient.
- Why is this the case after all the efforts to vaccinate?

<https://ourworldindata.org/coronavirus>

